

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

or otherwise any cart or wagon from any resident dealer in such vehicles which said dealer may have in stock at the time of the passage of this Act.

Duties of constables, etc.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of any constable or other peace officer of Caroline County, or of any incorporated town in said county, to apprehend any person violating this Act and to bring him before some justice of the peace in and for said county, and upon conviction before said justice, the party so offending shall be fined five dollars for each wheel of said vehicle which shall not comply with the provisions of this Act, together with the costs of such arrest and trial; and in case of refusal or failure to promptly pay such fine and costs, then the said vehicle shall be seized and sold at a public sale in the same manner as property may be sold for the payment of a common debt, except that no exemption shall be allowed to satisfy the fine and costs of such arrest, trial and sale; and if for any cause whatever it shall be difficult to apprehend the owner of said vehicle, then the driver with such vehicle or any agent of the owner of said vehicle shall be liable under the provisions of this Act.

Act to be submitted to voters of the county.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the foregoing Act shall be submitted to the registered qualified voters of Caroline County on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1904, at the election then to be held therein, and the sheriff of said county shall, at least three weeks previous to the day of said election, cause public notice to be given of the submission of said Act, to be published in the newspapers of said county, also by printed hand bills containing said notice to be set up at the most public places within said election district of said county; and the County Commissioners of said county shall pay for the publishing of said notice and for printing said hand bills, and shall also pay said sheriff twelve dollars and fifty cents for his services, but if for any reason said notice shall not be given, or not given in the manner herein prescribed, such failure shall not effect the validity of this Act or operate or prevent its taking effect.

How the vote shall be cast.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the ballots cast at said election shall have printed on them the words, "For Wide Tire Law," with a blank space opposite the same suitable to receive the cross mark of the voter, and the words, "Against Wide Tire Law," opposite a similar blank space, and the ballots cast for and against said wide tire law shall be carefully counted by the judges of said election in the respective election districts of said county, and the number of ballots "For Wide Tire Law"
